D.Conclusion

The implementation of instructional media is very helpful and meaningful to support me in teaching Congratulating and Complementing. The use of instructional media such as Letter Word Games, PPT, Speakers, and Situation Cards is a very interesting media for students to be able to learn English language more deeply and active. Although the use of instructional media is very important and necessary, the content used must be appropriate and accordance with what the teacher wants to teach in the learning process.